2023 CHIEF AZUL CITIZENSHIP AWARD

Chief Antonio Azul “Mavith Kavdom” (Lion Shield), born 1817, is recognized as the last Head Chief of the Akimel O’otham. In a letter to the Arizona Territorial Governor in 1866, Chief Azul wrote, “The Pimas and Maricopas want nothing from the government except schools”. His statement shows how the O’otham and Pee Posh people of Gila River understood the importance of education for future generations. Chief Antonio Azul passed away on October 1, 1909.

The Chief Azul Citizenship Award recognizes outstanding students who consistently demonstrate a positive attitude and friendly demeanor and by their actions serve as role models to others. Fifteen (15) High School Seniors will receive this award, contingent upon a review of their Citizenship Award nomination and supporting documents.
